The Mamaroneck Artists' Guild, founded in 1953 is the oldest artists' co-operative maintaining its own non-profit gallery in Westchester County.

Today, the Guild comprises almost 300 member artists, many of whom have achieved national recognition. Among MAG's members are painters, sculptors, printmakers, photographers and graphic artists. Our crafts people include jewelers, ceramists and fiber artists.

Exciting new work can be seen at our new, expanded gallery every three weeks in group shows and solo exhibitions. Crafts are displayed on a continuous basis.

Membership in the Mamaroneck Artists' Guild is by jury selection, which takes place at the gallery in April and October. We seek high quality work in diverse styles and media and welcome inquiries. For membership details, please call the gallery or visit our website.
